Have you ever wondered why some waves just barely swell and others get all the way up to your beachtowel while those very rare few destroy an entire shoreline? We hardly notice the first two types, but the last makes quite an impact on the world. East 83-84 was like one of those very few, very rare waves. We weren't going to sit back and let people ignore us, we wanted to let people know who we were.

So we were different. Perhaps not every Leopard was different from the other, but as a whole, we were unique. We dared to be different and to break a few rules. No other school acted, looked, or achieved quite like we did.

We intrigued a few people in '83-'84, but we didn't make a giant impact on the world. The school year was just the beginning, just the initiation of our rise in the world. Like the monstrous wave which takes so long to come ashore, we were simply building our strength so when we were ready for our impact, it would be phenomenal.

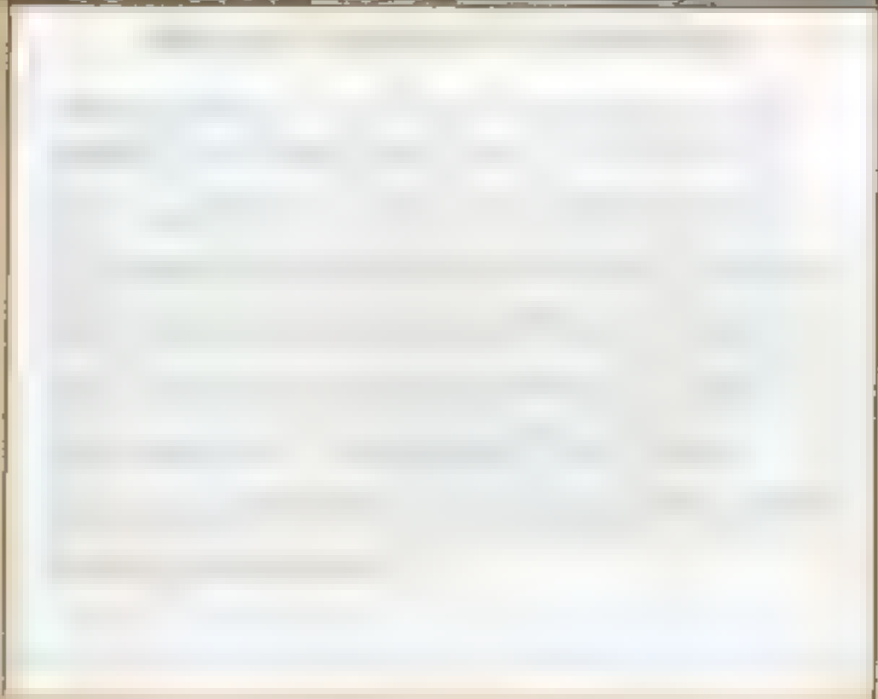

Maybe we're not together any longer, but each of us still carries that ever-building strength inside. Unless we lose the memory of the power and uniqueness of the '83-'84 year, each Leopard will make his own impact on the world. Together, we will create a phenomenal "East High" impact. And all because we dared to be "a whole new wave".

When East Comes Alive

There must be more to life than an 8 to 3 school day! And at EHS there is much more. While many students find pleasure in attending movies, eating, or just "playing", others are more dedicated to the working life. Many Eiders dedicate their after-school hours to extracurricular activities such as Debate or Dance Co. Although it is true each EHS student spends the night life involved in various activities, everyone feels after school is relaxation time.

East's working class is well represented through SLC, Nordstrom, as well as other dept. stores, has Eiders wrapping, stocking, and selling. One is sure to find an EHS student bagging groceries if he shops at either Smith's or Don's. Students have also found employment at Trolley Square, many of its theatres, shops, and restaurants have employed Leopards.

Most parents probably don't realize when they hand their high school aged son or daughter the car keys, that they are providing the child's entire night's entertainment. For lack of anything better to do, East students often find themselves driving around.

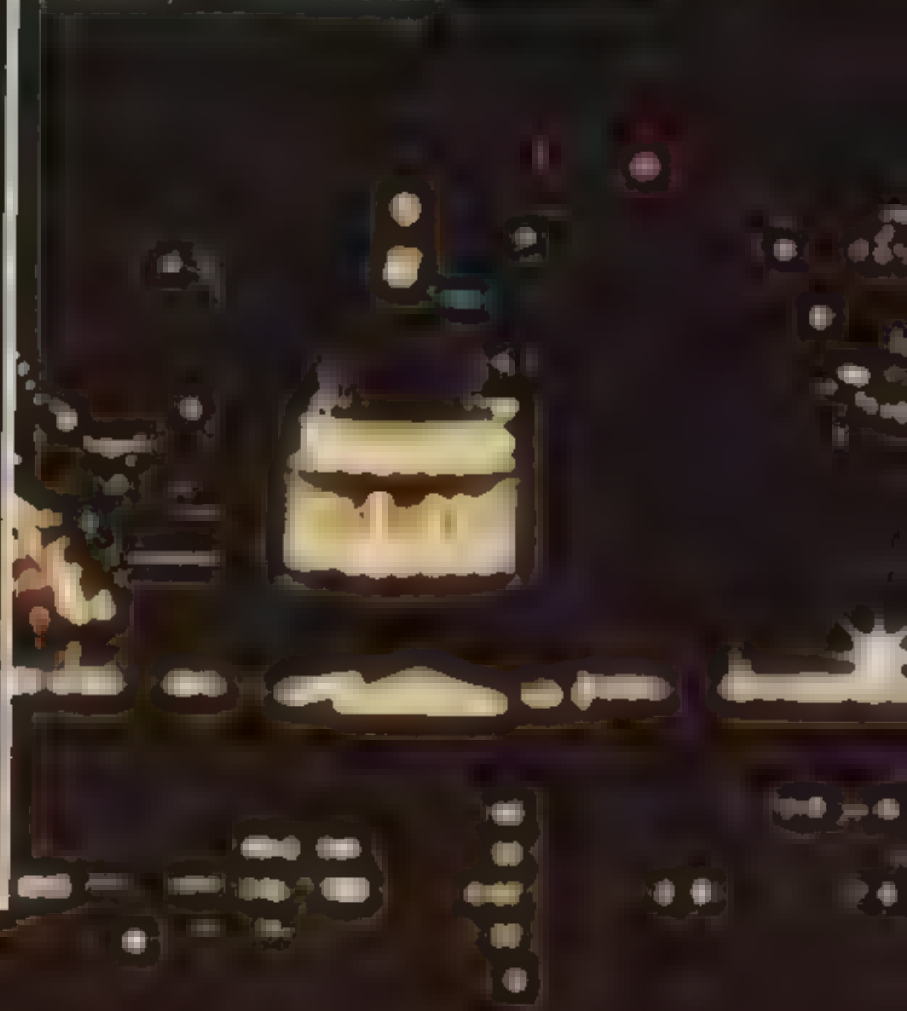

Then, there are always those nights when kids decide just to stay home and watch T.V. With all these night life activities - when does one find time for Homework?!!?

The following table shows the results of the regression analysis for the dependent variable "Number of children in the household" (N = 1,000). The independent variables are "Age of the head of household" and "Gender of the head of household". The table includes the coefficient estimates, standard errors, t-statistics, and p-values for each variable.

Variable	Coefficient	Standard Error	t-statistic	p-value
Age of the head of household	0.001	0.000	1.2	0.23
Gender of the head of household (Male = 1, Female = 0)	-0.05	0.02	-2.5	0.01
Constant	1.5	0.1	15.0	0.00

The regression results indicate that the age of the head of household has a very small positive effect on the number of children in the household, while the gender of the head of household has a small negative effect. The constant term represents the expected number of children in the household when both independent variables are zero.

Men's/Women's Week

Getting together

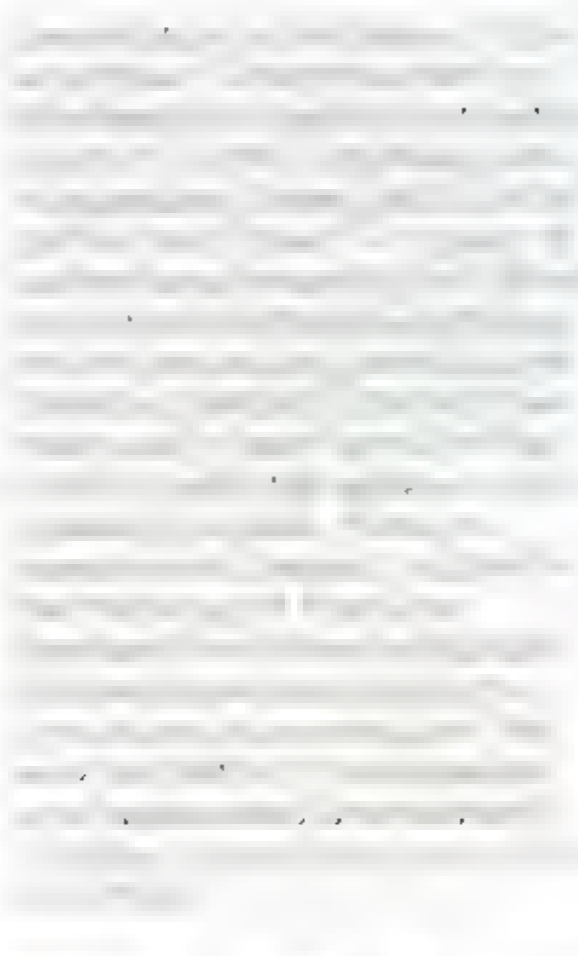

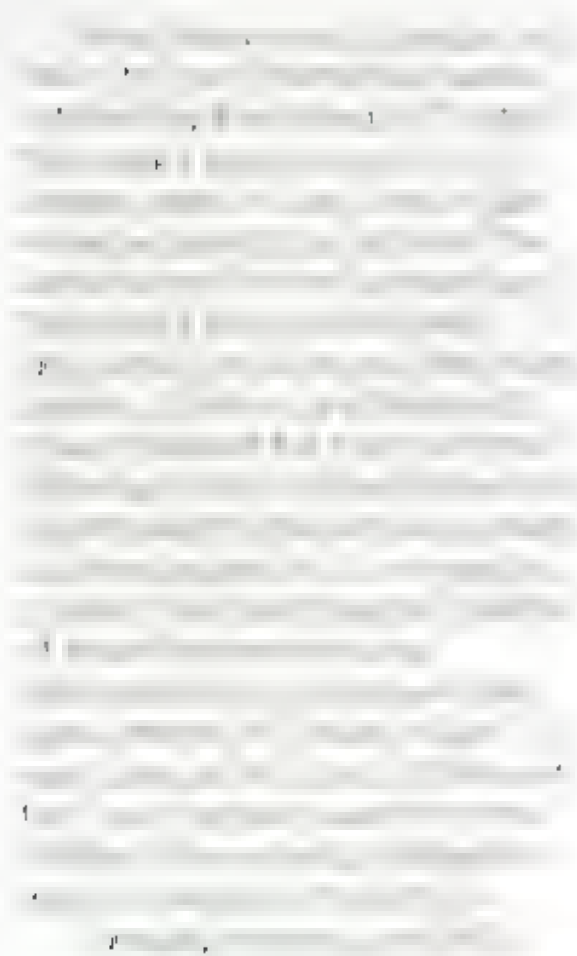

Men's and Women's Week is a time when the community comes together to celebrate the achievements of men and women in various fields. It is a week of events, workshops, and seminars that aim to inspire and educate. The week is held annually in the month of March, and it is a great opportunity for men and women to learn from each other and to share their experiences. The events are designed to be inclusive and to provide a platform for everyone to voice their opinions and ideas. It is a week of learning, growth, and inspiration.

The teeny boppers
plan a whopper

The teeny boppers of the school are planning a whopper for Freshman Day. The group, which includes some of the most popular girls in the school, are planning a big party for the freshmen. The party will be held in the gymnasium and will feature a variety of games and activities. The girls are also planning to have a dance and a picnic. The party is expected to be a big success and will be a great way for the freshmen to get to know the other students in the school.

LEOPARD

East Is Their Beat

The Leopard had a reputation for being a free press. The reporters covered a wide range of topics including sports, the arts, features, education and much more. The Leopard was a student publication which emphasized the importance of the newspaper in a free society. The students working on The Leopard learned the elements of journalism. The Leopard class stresses developing the integrity of the student and advocated journalistic and artistic excellence. The Leopard prompted community awareness and provided the community with pertinent information. The Leopard received many awards, and several students won various honors for their endeavors. Each member of staff has contributed to the success of The Leopard and should be congratulated for his participation in journalism.

To Argue (a Question) Formally

For the purpose of this debate, we will be discussing the question of whether or not the government should provide free healthcare for all citizens. This is a complex issue that has been debated for many years. On one hand, some argue that providing free healthcare would ensure that everyone has access to the care they need, regardless of their financial situation. On the other hand, others argue that it would be too costly and would lead to a loss of freedom. In this debate, we will explore both sides of the argument and try to reach a conclusion.

One of the main arguments in favor of free healthcare is that it would ensure that everyone has access to the care they need. This is particularly important for those who are unable to pay for their own healthcare, such as the elderly, the disabled, and the poor. By providing free healthcare, the government would be ensuring that these vulnerable populations are not left behind. Additionally, some argue that free healthcare would lead to a more efficient system, as it would eliminate the profit motive and allow for better coordination of care.

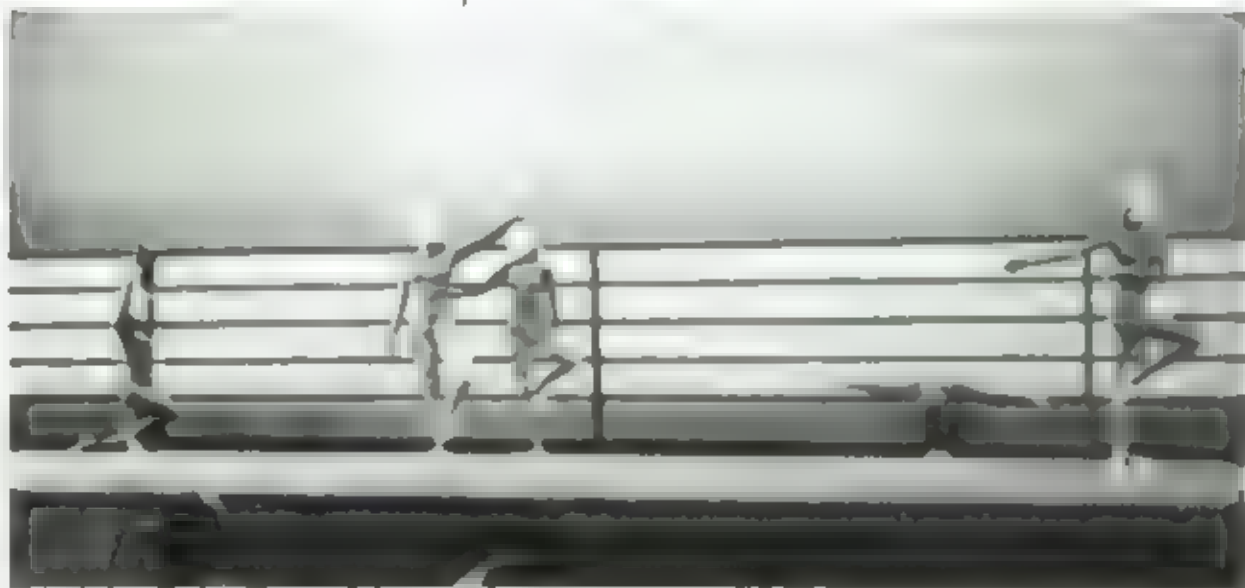

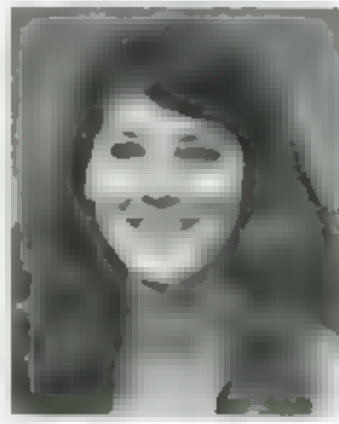

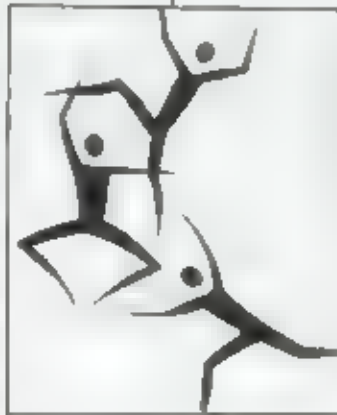

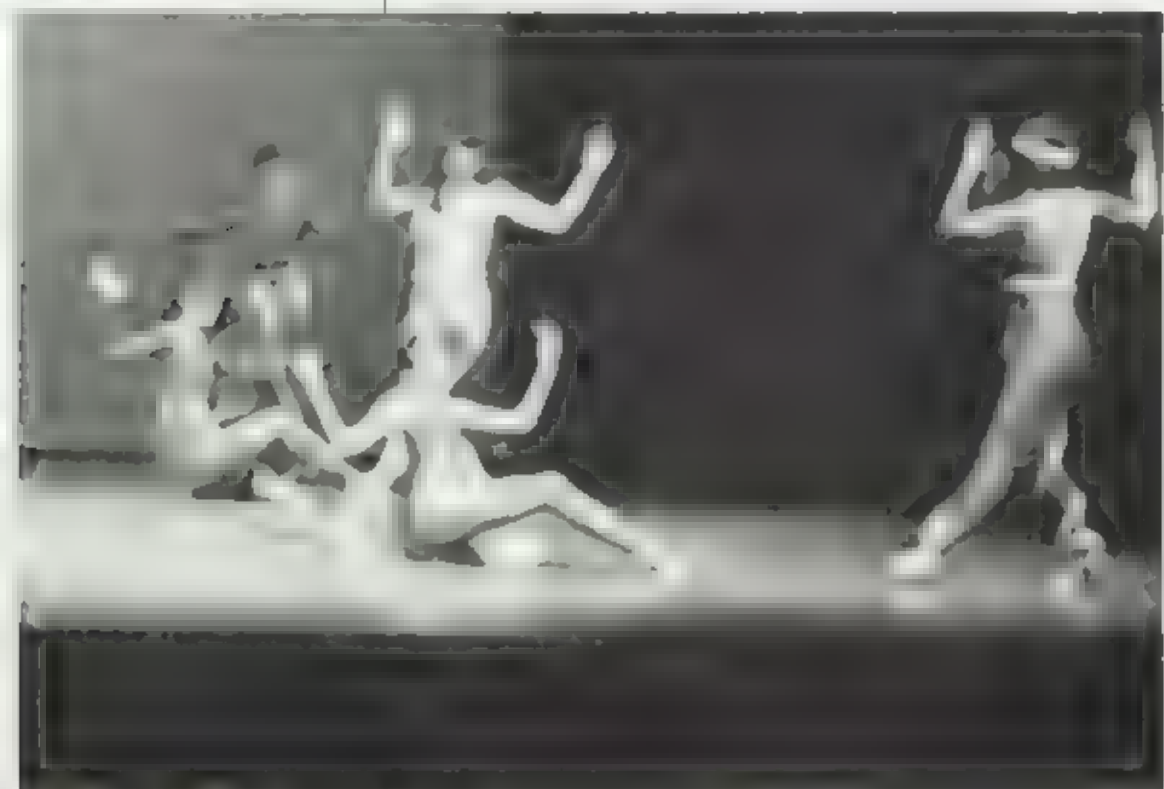

DANCE COMPANY

Leaping Into Success

The dance company is a group of students who are passionate about dance and want to share their talent with the community. They have been practicing for months and are now ready to perform. The company is made up of students from all grades and is led by a teacher who has been teaching dance for many years. They have been working hard and are excited to show off their skills. The company is a great way for students to learn about dance and to have fun. They are also a great way for students to learn about teamwork and to work together to achieve their goals. ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

Students Take Charge

The Assembly Committee, a group of students who take charge of the school's assembly, met recently to discuss the upcoming year. The committee, which is made up of students from all grades, met with the principal to discuss the school's goals and objectives for the coming year. The committee also discussed the school's budget and the need for more resources. The principal thanked the committee for their hard work and dedication to the school.

STAGE CREW

Lights! Sound! Action!

Who are those people running around the auditorium?

The stage crew is a group of students who work behind the scenes to make sure that every production runs smoothly. They are responsible for setting and changing scenery, moving props, and managing the stage lights. The crew is made up of students from all grades, and they work together to create a professional-looking production. They are often the unsung heroes of the stage, working hard to make sure that the audience can enjoy the show without any interruptions.

CULTURAL AWARENESS

Concepts, Skills, and Art

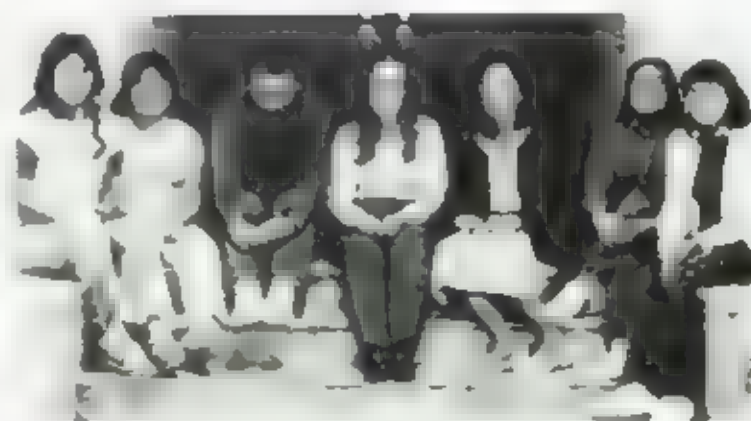

1. The first step in the process of cultural awareness is to recognize the existence of different cultures. This is often the most difficult step, as many people tend to view the world from a narrow perspective. It is important to understand that there are many different ways of life, and each has its own unique values and traditions.

2. Once we have recognized the existence of different cultures, the next step is to learn about them. This can be done through a variety of methods, including reading, travel, and direct experience. It is important to approach this learning process with an open mind and a willingness to accept what we find.

Here are the cafeteria's head custodial workers. I saved them for this page because I don't think they get enough recognition. They really do a lot for East and I want to thank all of them for putting up with all of us...

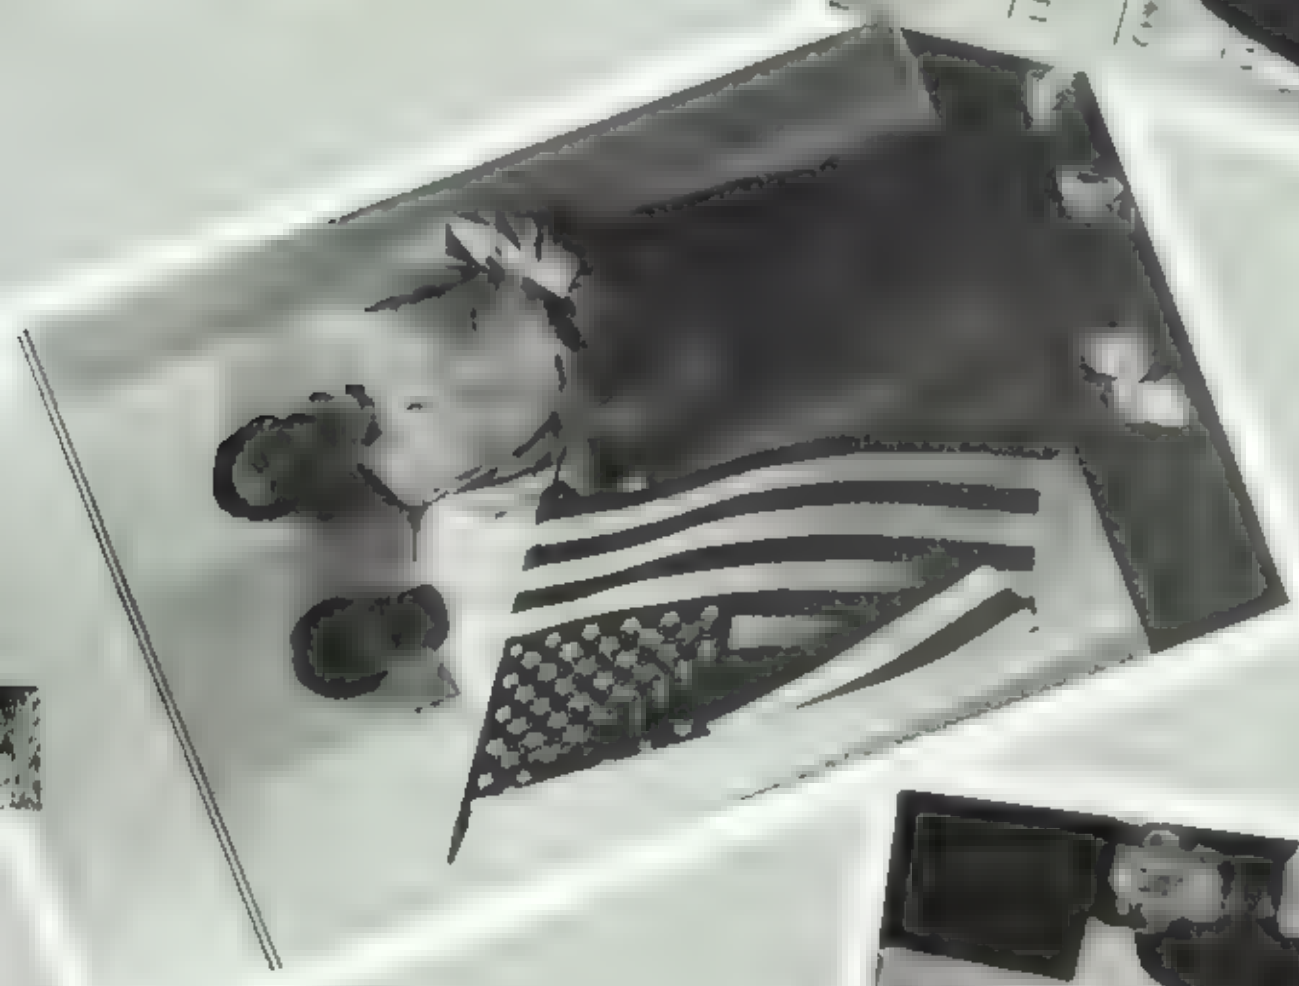

Jim Buselle: John West — two UNFORGETTABLE who seemed to be seniors in the senior section. But due to the popular demand of any gorgeous East High women, we've given them a special tribute — WE LOVE YOU !!!

THAT FLAG 71? The Madch club added much humor not only to Mr. Hansens 7th period class but to the entire school. Whether Mark was making spit bubbles or Chad was wooing Nancy Smith, these boys managed to make us, especially me, laugh. I truly want to thank them for making school more bearable. By the way Chad, I'm always free for a good game of golf!!

Kent Condon constantly threatened me with my life if I wouldn't consent to put him in the yearbook, so here he is. He made Mason's 2nd period so much more fun with his Jerry Garcia, Bob Dylan & Rolling Stones tunes. Even though his voice left something to be desired, I always knew where he'd blow if he had a shotgun...

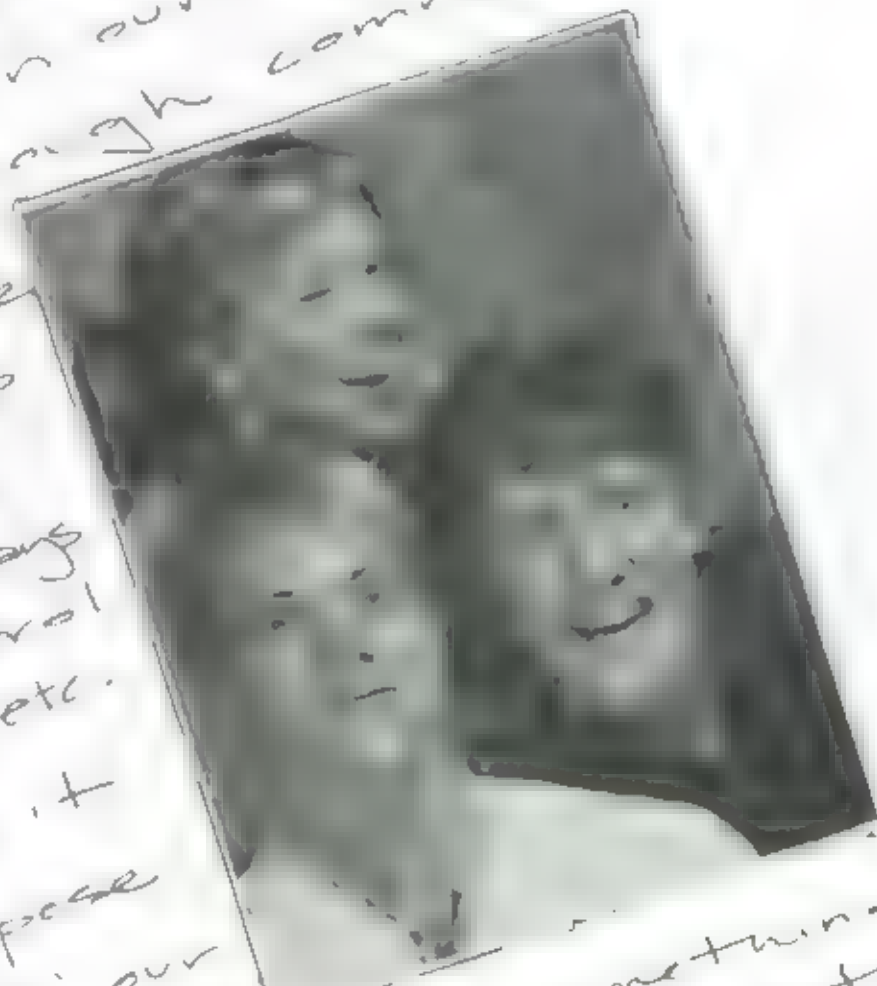

Chuck Revill, the amazing cowboy-gone-yearbook-rep put up with so much of believe it, that I can't owe the success(?) of the book to him, Chuck! You've the hottest lech, man around...

Here is a picture of our school tradition's sake...

I can't even believe that this book is finished!
It makes me laugh way hard.
Everything has gone wrong — we've lost film, exposed film, no film, parties with people but nowhere for a party!
communication — on our administration-removed phone, not enough communication between the staff and the photographers, too many pictures, no pictures, boring totally out of-control days, etc., etc., etc.

on well, I think it was fun. I suppose

I'll "never forget" our parties in Rm. 415 listening to wild music and singing something that tasted like cough medicine, the utterly disgusting jokes of "Damm t' and Chr stranne, Vaughan showing up at a party with his bicycle and them not knowing what to do with it, trying to think of ways to smuggle money from the school, smuggling money from the school by way of $22 worth of pizza, listening to Magleby's weekend experiences, driving around in Slawson's "piece", the Homecoming parade where Vaughn & I were the only sober ones and Janet had to pull down her skirt to control Mag's ho-mones.
And to think it all added up to this book. Wow see ya when you're
